

For Immediate Release

June 1, 2013

To: News Desk

From: Elaine Schupp, Media Relations (843) 906-1113

South Carolina District Names Charleston Attorney Bob Lowe as its President-Elect at Annual Convention

The Exchange Clubs of the South Carolina District by unanimous vote of delegates from 17 Exchange Clubs throughout South Carolina have elected Charleston attorney Bob Lowe as its president-elect.

Bob is a member of the Exchange Club of Charleston and the Evening Exchange Club of Charleston. He is a past Man of the Year for the Exchange Club of Charleston and current president of the Evening Exchange Club of Charleston.

The Exchange Club of Charleston is the largest of 700 Exchange Clubs in the country and recently donated over $802,000.00 in grants to the local community. The Evening Exchange Club of Charleston was recognized during the convention as the mid-sized club with the highest number of completed programs of service to the community during 2012-2013. Bob is the first lawyer to be named president-elect in the 77-year history of the South Carolina District.

Charleston attorney David Johnson was named District Director of Division 4 which includes the Exchange Club of Charleston, Evening Exchange Club of Charleston and the Metropolitan Exchange Club of Charleston. David is also a member of the Exchange Club of Charleston and the Evening Exchange Club of Charleston.

Exchange is America's oldest service club with 700 clubs and nearly 20,000 members across the country. Its mission is carried out through its programs of service that include Americanism, Youth Programs, Community Service, and its national project, the Prevention of Child Abuse. Founded in 1911, Exchange celebrated its 102nd Anniversary in March of 2013.

For information go to www.nationalexchangeclub.org